ORDER

Review of this file warrants entry of the preliminary orders which follow:

A. Pending Motions

It is ORDERED that Plaintiffs show any cause on or before September 15, 2006, why defendant Timberline Homes, Incorporated's Motion to Stay and Compel Arbitration, filed with exhibits (Doc. 8, August 11, 2006) should not be granted.

B. Magistrate Judge Consents or Reassignment Requests

The record reflects the Clerk's transmittal of notice to the plaintiffs and defendants on August 11, 2006, of the random assignment of this civil case to a United States Magistrate Judge, who is authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) to conduct any and all proceedings in a jury or non-jury civil case and to order the entry of final judgment upon the consent of all parties to a case. Any appeal from a judgment entered by a Magistrate Judge is taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in the same manner as any appeal from any judgment entered in this court. Any party to this lawsuit has the right to consent to, or decline to consent to, the exercise of jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge, without adverse consequences. Counsel for the parties are DIRECTED to execute and send to the Clerk, for receipt not later than September

1, 2006, either the attached form for consent to the Magistrate Judge's exercise or jurisdiction or the attached form for reassignment of this case to the District Judge.

C. Dispositive Motions

The longstanding practice in this district is that dispositive motions shall be filed no later than 90 days prior to the pretrial date. If the parties seek to vary from that schedule, they should present, in the plan, specific case-related reasons for the requested variance.

D. Scheduling for Trial

The court may or may not hold a scheduling conference before issuing a scheduling order, and counsel may indicate any preference on the Rule 26(f) report. If the court sets a scheduling conference, counsel may participate by conference call as circumstances may warrant.

This case will be set for trial during one of the assigned judge's regularly scheduled civil trial terms. The pretrial date is normally set within four to six weeks of a scheduled trial term. The dates of each judge's civil trial terms are available on the court's website located at <http://almd.uscourts.gov> in the civil case information section.

The scheduling order entered by the court will follow the form of the Uniform Scheduling Order adopted by the judges of this court. The Uniform Scheduling Order is also available on the court's website.

Done this 14th day of August, 2006.
